Foreword

It has been said that the more you know the more you have a yearning to know. We believe that this applies to memories. The more you remember, the more you want to remember and the more time you will spend thinking of the past.

Everyone knows that great books are the key to learning; likewise a book can be the key to memories. We hope that this annual will lead you to many pleasant memories of this year at Seagraves High School.

Dedication

MR. H. M. COOK

Thirteen years ago Homer M. Cook came to Seagraves High school as vocational agriculture instructor. He has been a valuable member of our teaching staff every day during his long tenure here. His loyalty to our school and community, his interest in the over-all program of our schools and his dedicated interest in the future farmers of this area have endeared him to all connected with Seagraves High. So to you, Mr. Cook, the annual staff proudly dedicates

Who's Who

CHARLES WARE

Charles is a quiet and assuming student. Back of these characteristics is a dynamic personality. He is a friend to all students, alike. Charles has some steadfast principles which he will not sacrifice for popularity. He has put himself in favor of the faculty by his integrity, his perseverance, and his scholarly attainments. All who know Charles admire him for his genteel manners. He has proven his executive abilities by his leadership in his school clubs and civic organizations. As one of Seagraves' outstanding students, Charles' name will go down in history.

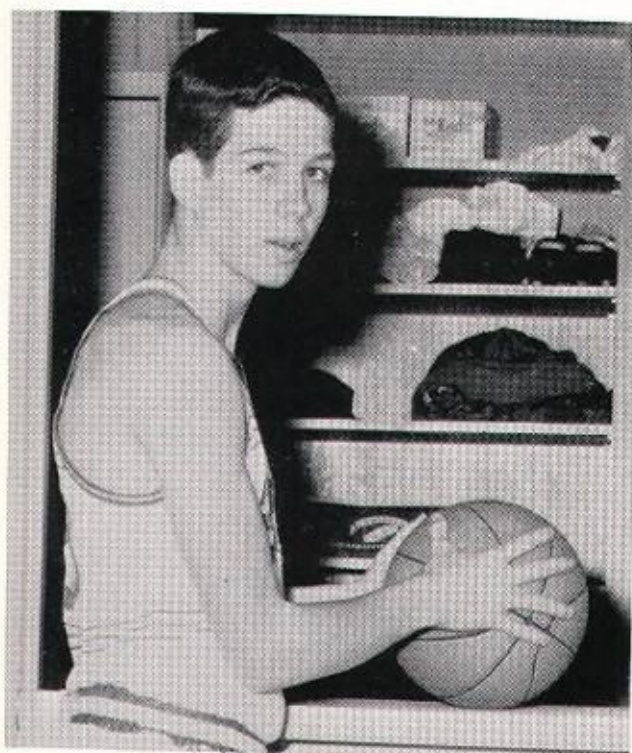

MARILYN KNISLEY

Cloaked in modesty and intelligence, Marilyn Knisley has proven that "there is no cosmetic for beauty like happiness." Her contribution of unique talents in scholarship, music and drama have blessed her school and community and forged a pattern that any young woman could emulate with pride.

SCOTT JOHNSON

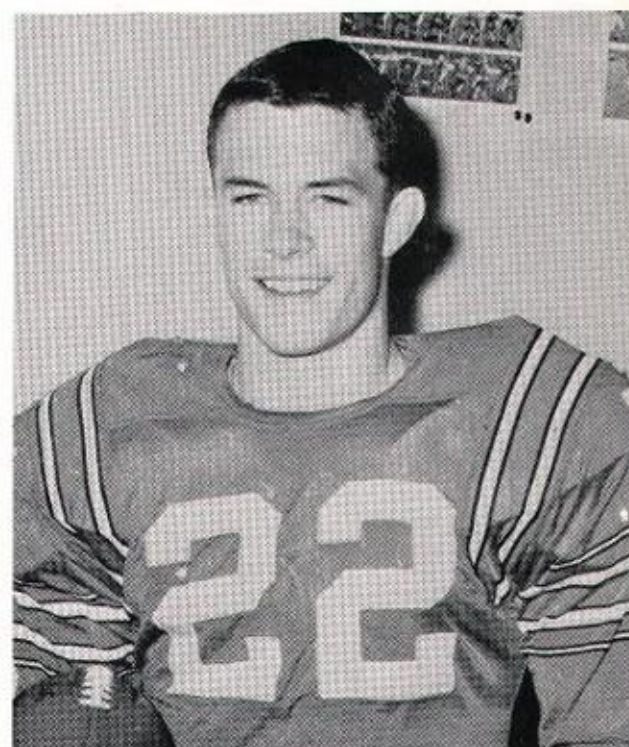

Scott Johnson possesses that rare combination of qualities - mental, physical, and those of personal integrity - which produces an all-around person. A cooperative attitude, loyalty to self and school, friendliness to all, and strong leadership ability are but a few traits which characterize "Scotty." Not only his athletic prowess has been outstanding during his school years, but his academic and personality skills have combined to make him an outstanding figure. To say that he has a dedicated spirit in everything he undertakes, as a leader or as a participant, be it school, community, or self representation, is to say that he is an admired and respected personality in Seagraves High.

CLYDE KELTNER

Athlete, scholar, and gentleman best describe Clyde Keltner.

Athletically, Clyde has indelibly inscribed his name among the greats of S.H.S. Scholastically, his four years are a compliment to his dedication for higher learning, "Win like a gentleman - lose like a man," has become the motto of this young Christian gentleman, a symbol to American youth.

BETTY KILPATRICK

A very pretty student with a wonderfully warm smile is Betty. As a cheerleader in S.H.S. for the past three years, Betty has served as an inspiration for the entire student body with her contagious enthusiasm and bright friendly manner.

Quiet, unassuming, and intelligent, Betty has proven her deep loyalty to her school by her service which she always places above self.

Those who have been privileged to know and work with Betty in S.H.S. will long remember the glow from the bright candle of her friendship.

BUTCH SHELLEY

Butch is characterized by his scholastic ability, perseverance and reliability. He has a natural curiosity that has enabled him to acquire an interest and knowledge in many varied fields. He is active in school, church and related organizations and is an asset to his school and community. These qualities have earned him the respect and admiration of his fellow students and the faculty.

JUNE BELCHER

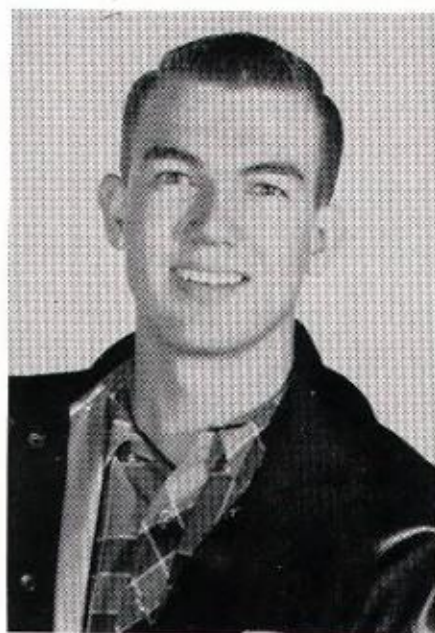

A sunny smile and a friendly "Hello" fittingly describe June. She shows outstanding leadership abilities in our organizations and classes. She wants the best for S. H. S. and is filled with enthusiasm for furthering this cause in every way possible. The best way to do things is the only way to June. As well as being a top leader in school, she is an outstanding community worker, being especially dedicated to church work. June is the "All-American" type of girl, displaying many desirable qualities that are assets to her now and will continue to be in the future.

CHARLEY FLEMMONS

The ability to get along with fellow students and teachers is an outstanding trait of Charley Flemmons. Leadership when leadership is needed, humor when good humor is needed, and clear thinking at all times are characteristics of this young man. An outstanding student, an outstanding athlete, these traits have added to his popularity. Always a part of the whole, working for the things that are best for S. H. S., Charley is truly Who's Who.

Dear Mr. Williford:

Thank you for the privilege of selecting the Most Beautiful and Most Handsome of Seagraves High School. It has been an enjoyable, yet difficult, decision to make. After much consideration, I have selected the following:

Most Beautiful - Connie Miller
Most Handsome - Clyde Keltner

Please tell the rest they all tied for second. I am returning the photographs plus mine as you requested. Thank you for your trust.

EAGLES 52 EUNICE 14

After a shaky start, the Eagles settled down to a display of power in overhauling the Cardinals. This victory over the New Mexico Class B State Finalists was a costly outing, for two starters, Donny Fields and Van Lasiter were lost for a majority of the season with injuries.

SEAGRAVES 44 STANTON 6

The Class AA Buffaloes fell to the Eagles 44-6. Avenging a defeat the previous year proved sweet to the Eagles and also for stellar performance, Clyde Keltner was named "Back of the Week" by the Lubbock Avalanche Journal. Darkening the excitement for team and fans alike was the serious injury in the second quarter of halfback Ronny Fields, and end Billy Gaddy in the third quarter.

EAGLES 14 WINK 6

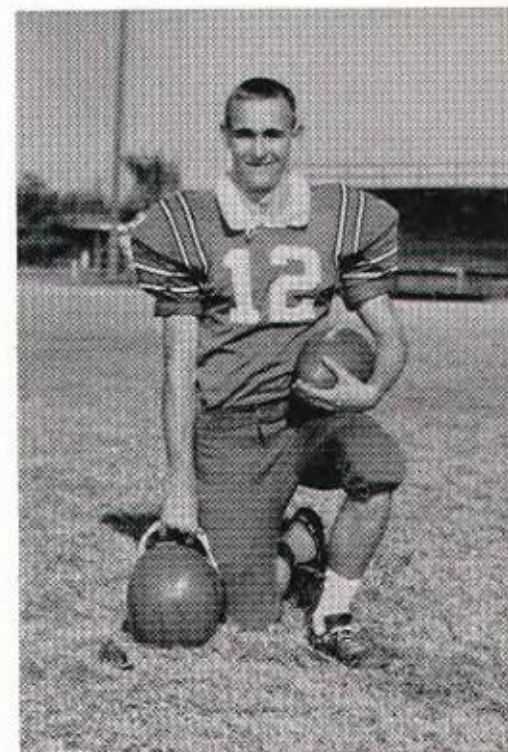

Opening 5-A conference play was a thriller as the Wildcats from Wink fell to the Eagles by 14-6. Surprising was the play of "tiny" Bo Faulkenberry as he repeatedly made gains through the Wink line, and in the third quarter made the tackle on the Wink fullback which proved to be the margin of victory.

EAGLES 30 SUNDOWN 22

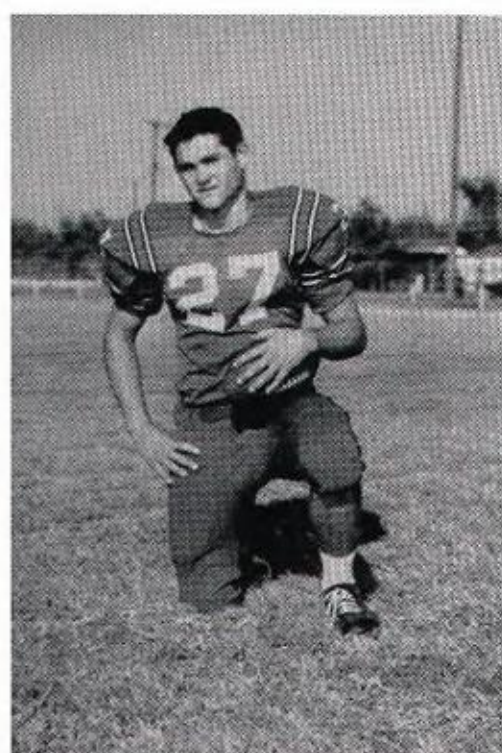

A Homecoming inspired team of Roughnecks literally played the Eagles off their feet. Tied 22 all late in the fourth quarter, and Scott Johnson took the kickoff and 85 yards later had added 6 points to the Eagle cause, and a second District victory.

District 5-A Champs

After a shaky start, losing 2 of the first 3 games, the Eagles recovered and won 3rd in the Sundown Tournament. The "Big Red" broke even until the Seagraves Tournament, which they won sweeping through 3 games with Plains, Sundown, and rugged Denver City.

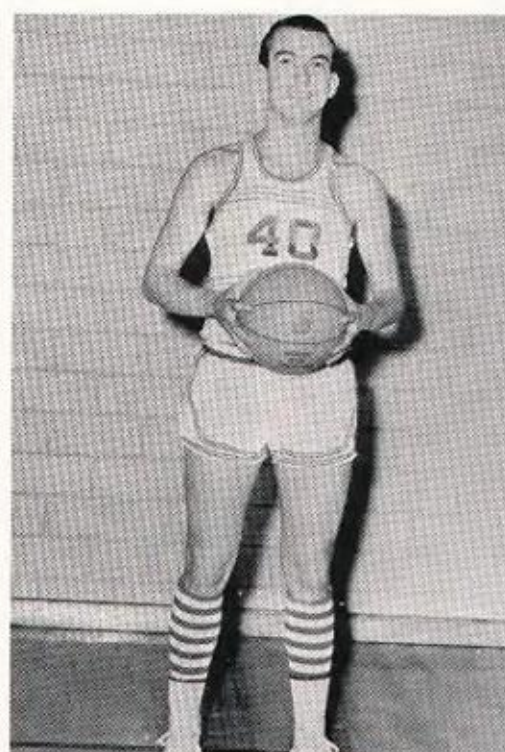

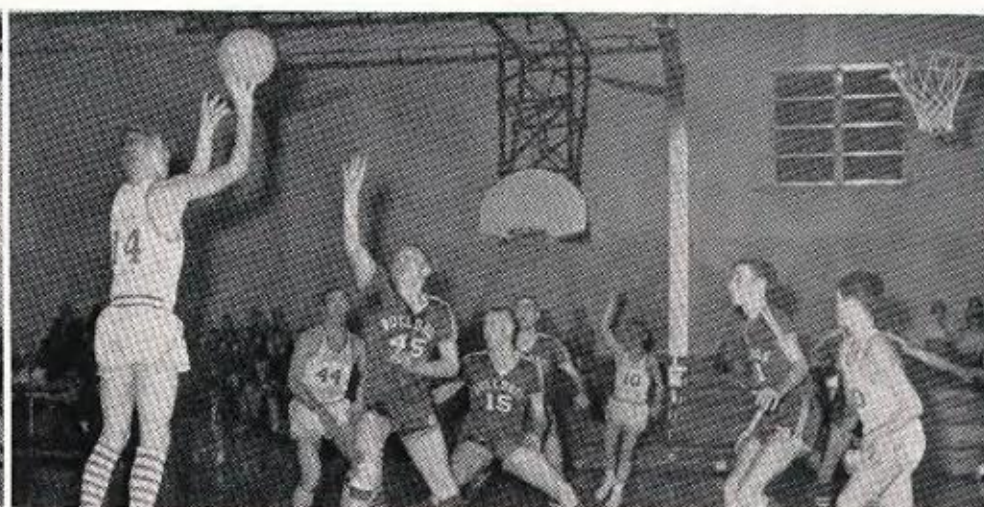

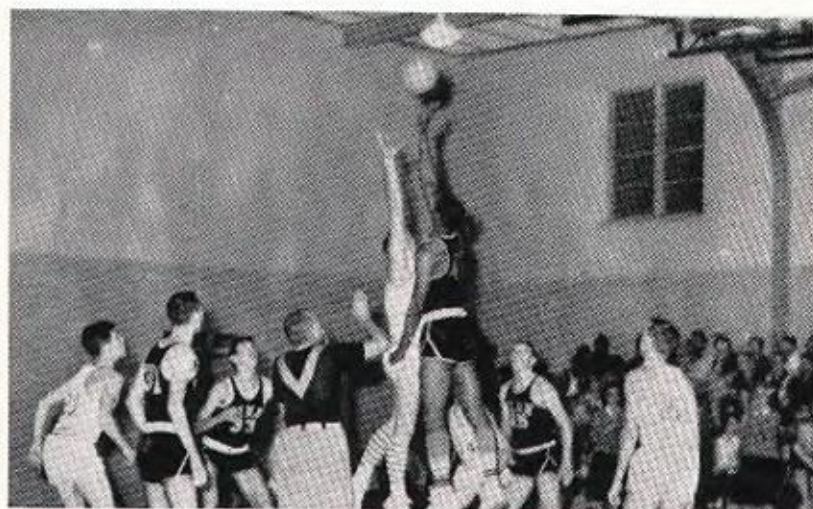

Seagraves' winning ways continued with 8 District victories in a row before losing at Wink. That same week the Eagles recovered from the loss and won the District outright with a 57-50 victory over O'Donnell.

The Eagles had little trouble with the first three district opponents, but had to fight from a 15 point deficit in the first quarter to pull out an important victory against Wink.

At Plains, the Eagles played catch-up ball until 1:45 was left in the game. The power came through, however, and Plains suffered a one-point loss.

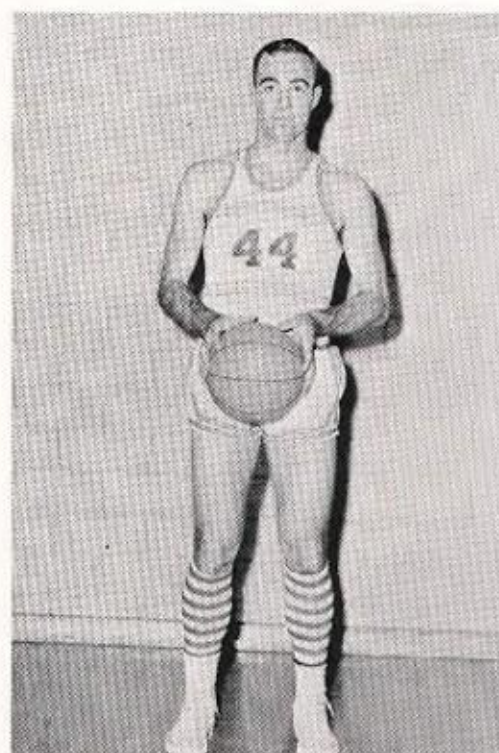

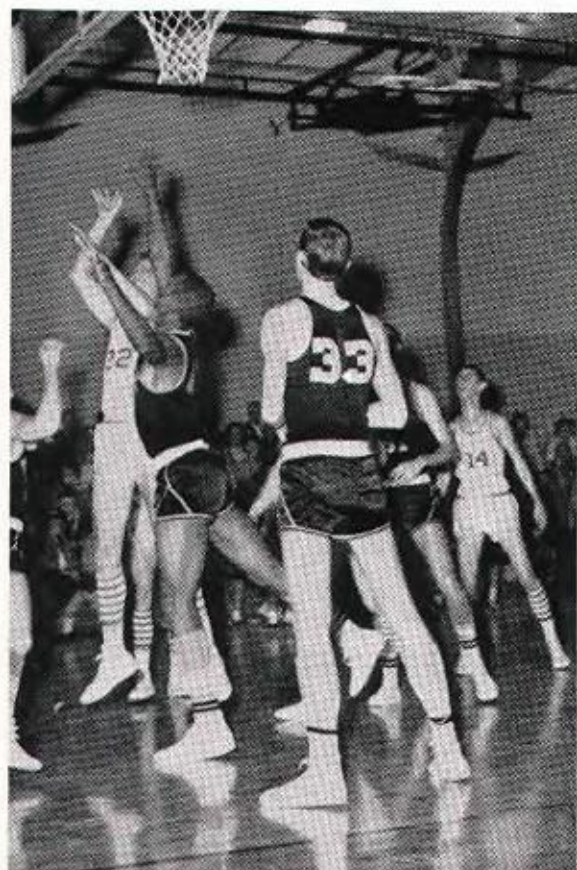

BO FAULKENBERRY

DWIGHT HAMILTON
Forward 1 Let.

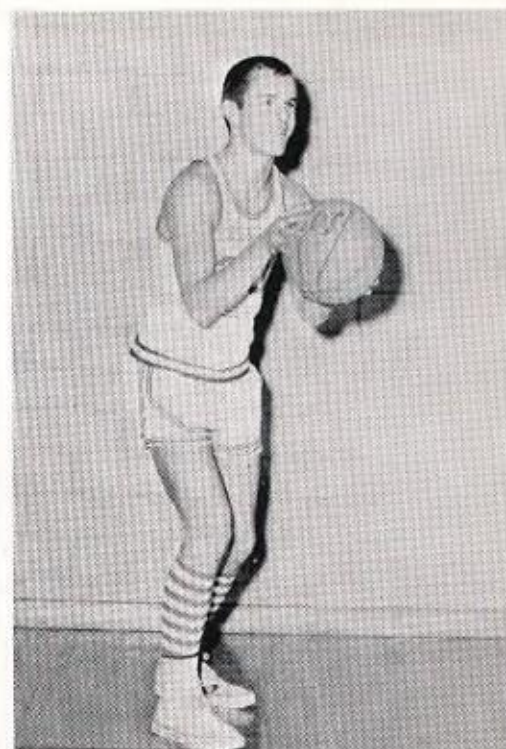

The District Champions split with two strong Class B schools after winning Conference 5-A. With a win over Gail and a 2 point loss to Shallowater, the Eagles rolled into Bi-District competition with a 17-7 record behind them.

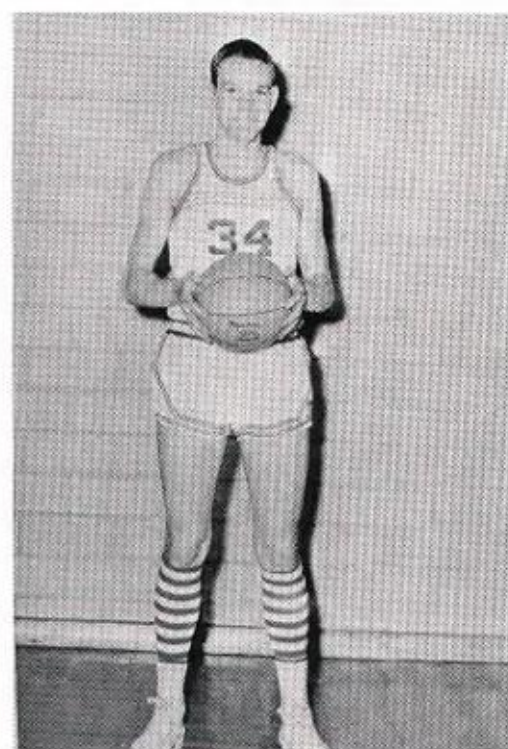

BILLY JOE CATHEY
Forward 1 Let.

Aspermont, a strong defender in Class B in 1963, won a hard-fought victory over the Eagles at Post for the Bi-District Championship. The Eagles, playing their hearts out to break a jinx of Bi-District losses for Seagraves, led the Hornets throughout the game until the last of the third quarter. From this point, the Eagles and Hornets matched baskets and Aspermont won 68-64. This is the third straight basketball championship for Seagraves under Coach Jim Eddins.

Homecoming

Shown above is our reigning Homecoming queen Miss Linda Moody and her attendants Kellah Osborn - freshman, Glenda Clepper - sophomore, and Connie Miller - junior. At left Linda is shown after being crowned and receiving her traditional bouquet from senior varsity players Cleve Garrard and Jackey Roberts. The coronation preceded the Seagraves-Wink game.

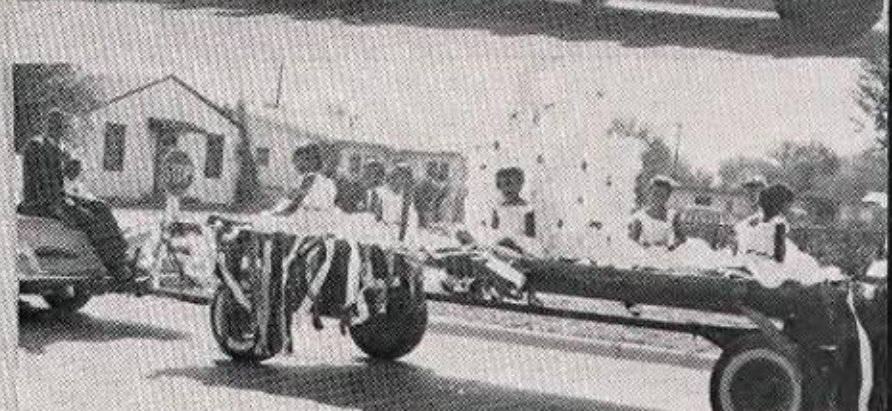

Here we have the bonfire which sent the Eagles off to a roaring win over Wink.
